Bay Area Education Week Set For Next Month

Bay Area L.D.S. Notes and Quotes

By Loop and Friends

ELMO R. SMITH can always come up with a story with a point and brings to the office of president of the Oakland-Berkeley Stake a great love for the Lord and for our Lord's children.

Stake President of the Month is President Elmo R. Smith of the Oakland-Berkeley Stake, a transplanted Idahoan and an attorney. He became stake president, succeeding President O. Leslie Stone, in November, 1967. He had served 16 years as a counselor in the Oakland and Oakland-Berkeley State Presidencies, and before that was Bishop of the Dimond (Now Oakland Third) ward.

The Messenger reporter, assigned to "write up" this month's Stake President, humbly confesses an inability to tell of President Smith's greatness of mind and heart and spirit with simple tools like "words on paper."

As a former member of the Dimond Ward, your reporter was present when Brother Elmo was sustained to be Bishop, and he humbly accepted the call to serve, an experience which is still clear in our memory banks.

Through his years of service he has always been able to tell a story with a point which not only attracts attention to the point to be made, but does it entertainingly.

President Smith was born March 28, 1915, in Madison County, Idaho, a son of James Raymond Smith and Pauline Wieland (a brother, M. Dee Smith, who also served as Bishop of Dimond Ward, became a member of the State High Council during President Stone's term of office and is still serving on the high council.)

President Smith completed Madison high school at Rexberg, Idaho, completed his associate degree in 1935 at Ricks College, his B.S. at Utah University in 1939, with high honors, and his LLB and JD (Doctor of Jurisprudence) at the University of California, 1943.

He and June Weindorf were married September 24, 1937, at the Salt Lake Temple. They have four children: Carolyn Lynn Harris of Reno, Nevada; Barbara June Stott of Salt Lake City; Judy Ann Smith, attending Brigham Young University at Provo; and Orene Debra Smith, living at home.

Green and Gold Corsage

Nomination for green and gold corsage, this month, goes to Robert Martin and Curg Johnson (both Seventies) in the Oakland Fourth Ward, who staged a "Trial of the Stick of Joseph" for the youth discussion circle in May. They interchanged roles of defense, prosecution and witnesses, with young men and young women serving as the jury and Ben Foulk, Priests' advisor as baliff. The court brought in "an unbiased judge" Bishop Dale E. Roe. Motion to seek a change of venue was denied before it was requested.

'Stellar Students' On Temple Hill July 7 Program

"STELLAR STUDENTS" will present the July 7 free organ concert on the newly-remodeled organ at the East Bay Interstake Center on Temple Hill, Oakland. The concert will open at 4 p.m. On the program are:

Carroll Heath, organist at San Francisco Ascension Lutheran Church, a graduate of Redlands University and a student studying with Mr. Alfred Ashburn, San Francisco. He will play: "Ascension Suite" by Olivier Messiaen.

Miss Alice Denise Knight 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Knight of Oakland, a student at Golden Gate Academy. She is organist for the Seventh Day Adventist Church at Pittsburg, St. John's Episcopal Church of Concord, and St. David's Episcopal Church, Pittsburg.

She will play: Prelude and Fugue in G-Major—J. S. Bach.

Scherzo and Finale — Louis Vierne.

Miss Martha Sobaje of Oakland, a music major at the University of the Pacific, and a student of Dr. Charles Schilling, head of the organ department at Stockton.

She will play:

Passacaglia and Fugue—J. S. Bach.

Tu Est Petra—Heuri Mulet.

The public is invited, the program is free, and no collection will be taken.

Elder MARION D. HANKS is one of the General Authorities of The Church He was named to the First Council of the Seventy in 1953 at the age of 31. In April of this year he was named as an Assistant to the Quorum of Twelve.

He was born in Salt Lake City. attended public schools and was graduated with a degree in law from the University of Utah. Elder Hanks has been prominent in the field of youth development.

He is a writer of distinction serving as editor of the Youth Section of The Improvement Era. He has been a teache rand principal in the Church Seminary system, has served as a counselor in the presidency of the Temple Square Mission, and is supervisor of the Oriental Missions of the Church. Elder Hanks married Maxine Christensen in the Hawaiian Temple. They have four daughters and one son.

Elder Hanks will lecture daily at 5 p.m. on "How to Enjoy The Book of Mormon" at 8 p.m. on "How To Enjoy The Doctrine & Covenants" and will give a special message (to be announced) at the 9 p.m. Assembly Hour on Friday, July 12.

Three In Music Tour Of Mission

Three musically- talente missionaries of the West Mexican Mission have completed a 3-week, 19-concert tour of the mission. Elder Brent M. Jones, pianist, Elder Brian L. Bowman, euphonimist, and Elder Daniel B. Dunford, flutist, delighted thousands leaving a high image of the Church through the four states of Mexico's smallest mission.

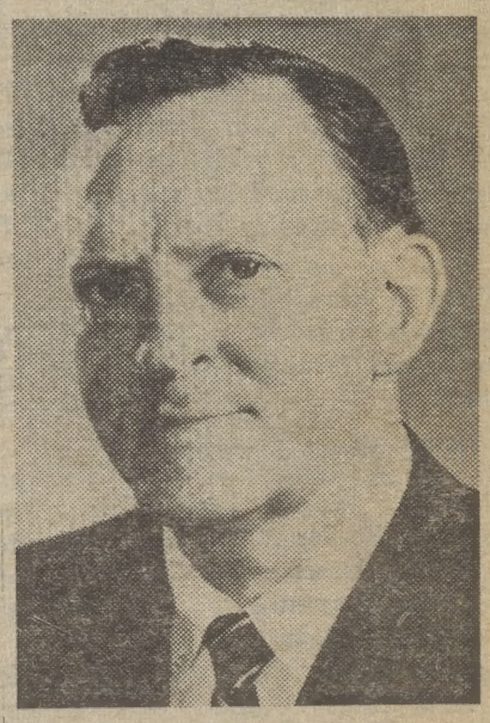
Changes Location

The Curtis R. Bybee realty office has been re-located at 3619—35th Avenue. The office was formerly located at the corner of MacArthur Boulevard and High Street. Bybee is a member of the Oakland-Berkeley Stake High Council and a former Bishop of the Oakland Fourth ward.



President ALVIN R. DYER was named one of the counselors in the First Presidency of the Church at April Conference of this year. Before this he had been a member of the Quorum of Twelve.

He has held many positions of responsiblity in the Church. In 1924 he served mission in the Eastern States. He has been president of the Cestral State Mission and has presided over the European Mission for two year. Presisent Dyer was an engineer in the heating and ventilating field. During World War II he served with the American Military Engineers.

President Dyer has obtained his education largely on a self-teaching basis, having taken corrsepondence courses in his professional field. He was highly successful in his business activities but disposed of them all in 1955 when called to be a Mission president, and has no professional interests at present, devoting all of his time to the Chuch. He married Elizabeth Jackson in the Salt Lake Temple and they are the parents o fone boy and one girl. He is the author of many books dealing with history and missionary service.

President Dyer will speak only at Sacramento July 10 and Oakland July 11. His subject at 2 p.m. each afternoon will be "Saved — for What and Where?" at 7 p.m. "The Redemption of Judah" and at the assefbly hour 9 p.m. "The World of iZon — Its Projected Future."

Oakland Fourth Sets Church Record With Latest Senior Volleyball Title

Oakland Fourth has for the fourth time (a church record) won the all-church volleyball tournament for senior players. This is the first time since the tourney started in 1950 that a team has taken the championship for four straight years.

Oakland defeated BYU 24th ward in the championship match by winning the second game 15-5 and the third game 15-7. BYU won the first game 15-12.

BYU was awarded the second place trophy and Santa Ana Second won third place. Edmonton 4th ward of Alberta Stake in Canada won the sportsmanship trophy in the senior division. Edmonton was the only other team to win one set from Oakland 4th.

Junior champions, Downey Stake (California) knocked off defending champions Kahuwai Branch of the Hawaii Mission. The Hawaiians won the first set 18-16, but dropped the next two 16-14 and 15-13.

The tournament in Salt Lake City climaxes play involving more than 2500 players. Salt Lake Finals brought together 32 senior and 32 junior teams in a double elimination tournament which put on the floors of the Deseret Gym and an inter-stake center a dozen games a day. And the play wasn't picnic style volleyball.

The Oakland Fourth ward bishopric and other members of the ward, including family members of the players, all attended the matches.

Players, led by playing coach Earl Shim, are: Hal Chartrand, Phil Hatori, Billy Kalehua, Clifford Lau, Peter Pua, Fred Rivera and Henry L. Whiffen.

Oakland Ward

By Ginny Hodge

Young Marrieds of Oakland Ward had a "Let's be Kids Again" costume party, attended by 11 couples on April 26. Gayle and Chuck Carter organized the party, and Brother & Sister Scott Barrett extended the use of their home and back yard to us for the evening. The group was divded into four teams, who competed in blowing bubbles ith bubble gum, tossing plastic rings on pegs, jump the rope and even the hula hoop!

Sixty children participated in their annual Primary family hour Sunday evening, May 5, under direction of Primary president Dane Davidson. Theme was Reverence in the House of the Lord." Sister Knight narrated the program, and Mary Johnson and Janice Miller directed the music.

The ward M.I.A. play "All in Favor" was presented on two evenings — first to the M.I.A. on May 7 and again on May 10. The cultural hall as filled. After the finale long-stemmed roses were presented to Caol Davis, who dirrected the play, Verna Johnson, who was in charge of the music, the choreography and accompanied and Dagny Merrill, who directed the cast on the piano.

Brother Lewis Johnson reports that our boys took second place in the Stake Aaronic Priesthood field day at Skyline High School May 18. Some of the events participated in were the 50 and 100 yard dash, broad jump, pull-ups and push-ups

In conjunction with the M.I.A. on the May 21 Cultural Arts exhibits were displayed in the cultural hall. Al Taylor Y.M.M.I.A. president, and Frank Streeter arranged the hall for the exhbits, which included photography, drawings, oil painting, coin collecting, woodwork, quilting, and various arts and crafts.

Danville Ward

By Elizabeth O'Nion

Sister Bertha Daniels is recovering from her illness.

"All in Favor" was presented May 14 by the MIA with 45 in the east directed by Joan Fjellstrom. The Relief Society gave a "Summer Splash-off" (to prepare for the bazaar in November) at the home of Gwen Stephens on Emerald Drive June 4 — a luncheon and swim show by the Howell synehronized swimming team.

Primary children, officers, and teachers gave an outstanding program on reverence May 12. The story of the time of the Crueifiction and Ressurection of Christ was given by Mary Jane Whitehead.

The ward welcomed new converts May Leo Anderson wife and daughter, also Jimmy Strunk.

One of our full-time missioaries, Sister Gelcher, is being transferred to Chico. Sister Bittner is now Sister Van Cleve's companion.

Sister La Rae Hogan's parents the M. Elmer Christensens have been called by the First Presidency to preside over a mission of the Church. President Christensen was a regional representative of the Twelve. He and Sister Christenser have four children living in the Concord and Walnut Creek Stakes.

Pamela Lee has returned from a visit to her parents Warren and Betty Lewis in Hawaii. She is awaiting arrival of her husband Geoge who plans to atterd the University of California, Berkeley to get his degree in German.

Scott Justus was presented a trophy as a member of the Danville Saints bowling team in the junior bowling league. The team won first place.

San Lorenzo 2d

By Elva Jacobsen

MIA successfully presented "All in Favor," directed by Winifred Cameron, to San Leandro Ward, and to patients at Hayward Rehabilitation Hospital, as well as to members of our own ward.

Bruce Tillotson received his Duty to God award Sunday, May 12.

Scout troop 635 recently participated in a Charrowood District CompoRee at Camp Los Mochas. Scouts slept in tents, cooked their own meals—charcoal broiled (charcoal in some cases), earned many advancements and competed with other troops on Scout camping skills. The troop earned an Award of Merit banner for excellence in the competition. Adult leaders were Scoutmaster Les Wheeler, assistant Bob LMoine and Harvey Carlson. One memento of the trip was a nine-button rattle from an unwary rattlesnake which discovered too late that boys and snakes don't mix.

The Relief Society closing social May 29 was combined with San Lorenzo Ward. A fashion show was planned with items sisters made and modeled.

Mutual Marrieds had a swim party at Hayward plunge. The LeMoine's and Horn's planned the evening, and do-it-yourself banana splits were enjoyed by twelve couples. Next month a hayride is pianned.

Seventy per cent of the people who had recommends in our ward went to the Temple in April. This led the stake. The 28th was our scheduled night to do Temple work in May. Refreshments were served immediately after in the ward.

The Ron Hulmes' have a lovely new baby girl, Melissa, born May 6.

Blanch Cheak isn't feeling up to par, and may have to go into the hospital for test.

San Leandro 2d

By Ruby Ostler

San Leandro 2d Ward bishopric is going all out to increase our Sacrament meeting attendance. They have sent out questionnaires on how the meetings can be improved, requesting members to fill out and return them to the bishop. They hope ward members will cooperate and let them know how they feel about the length of the meetings, choice of speakers and music, so that all will feel they have gained something from the only meeting we are commanded to attend and will come out and support those who serve so faithfully.

Henery Winter was ordained a high priest at our stake conference.

San Leandro 2d Ward was well represented at the stake single seniors party, sponsored by the stake presidency and hosted by President and Sister Ostler. Everyone had an enjoyable time and hope to have another party soon. If you live in San Leandro Stake, are over 55, single, and enjoy pleasant company your own age, come out to the next party. You'll be glad you did.

Bishop and Sister Bauer are in Utah vacationing and while there will attend the graduation of their own son David at Brigham Young University.

Sister Mary Pierce is home and feeling much improved but is still not able to come out to church.

Oldest, Youngest Mothers Honored

By Dorothy A. Spoon

Two mothers received special honors from Fremont Ward on Mothers' Day, May 12, in the form of trumpet plants. One was the youngest mother present—Sister Maria Lewis. The other was the oldest—Sister Beulah Clara (Arnold) Bailey.

Sister Bailey was born May 30, 1888 in Cottonwood Falls, Kas. She and her late husband James William Bailey celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary June 2, 1967. Soon after, in July, her husband passed away. Brother and Sister Bailey met in Salt Lake City while she was working in a department store there and he was a photographer in a studio.

She is a convert to the Church due to missionaries living with them in New Mexico where her husband and one other LDS family were living. In March 20, 1918 they were married in the Logan Temple and three children, Bernetta, Jerry and Billy went through the Temple with them. They are the parents of seven children, three of whom are still living. Three boys and a daughter died when they were young. Sister Bailey has six grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Fremont 2d

By Annie Wootton

A benefit concert, sponsored by the Fremont 2d Ward, was held at the East Bay Interstake Center by the LINEBACKER TRIO, Dick Stam, Tom Stam and Wayne Gilbert. This great trio weights about a half ton between them and have this much power behind their singing. This benefit was to help build a new addition to the Fremont chapel. They played and sang songs of many varieties, from rock and roll to western. Many of the songs were sung in foreign and also in comedy. Carol, wife of Wayne, was the card girl and made a hit with the audience. Larry Benson was to support them when needed to play the piano.

Dick, Tom and Wayne all played football at one time. This is where they got the name, a Mission for 2½ years. Dick and Tom were in Holland and Wayne in Brazil. This accounts for the different languages and music they play. They have been playing together for five years, have just finished an engagement at the "Hungry i," and have been on T.V. They are all active in church. Tom is a Sunday School teacher and Dick works with the young adults in Mutual. Tom and Wayne are from the Newark Ward and Dick is from Fremont 2d Ward. At the end of the program they received a standing ovation.

Polynesian Ward

By Kay Makaiwi

One of the most looked-forward-to events of the year was the Aaronic Priesthood outing at Camp Royaneh May 17 and 18 at which more than 50 fathers and sons from the Polynesian Ward participated. The San Francisco Stake presidency directed the overnight camping activity which also comprised a breakfast by the stake, hiking, and games of volleyball, baseball football, and swimming.

Three youths graduated from Seminary this year at the May 26 graduation exercises: IRENE VELLES, ALETT KEAHI, AND SAM LLAVATI. Seminary teacher JERENIAR ALIP was on hand to congratuate the youths for their achievement in the Seminary program. Students who participated in the Seminary stake choir that evening were: Debra Lavatai, Alett Keahi, Carlotta Velles, Wes Lavatai, Eti Ah Loei Bill Fasi and Isaako Niko.

On May 29 the Polynesian Ward catered to a U.S. Postal dinner held at the Forest Lodge in San Fran. ciso. Bishop Wilfred K. Leaha and his counselors, Aaron Makaiwi and Henry Davidson headed the activity with the assistance of ward clerk Archie Makaiwi. Dinah Mokuau, afanua Southon, and Agnes Utu played principal roles in the preparation of the food. Relief Society president Clara Alip and her counselors assisted with decorations and the serving at the buffet table. The youth in the ward assisted in serving and providing the entertainment for the evening. Hawaiian, Maori, Tahitian and Samoan numbers were performed. Dance music was also provided by ward members — Roy, Lueli, Ima, Maa and Whitney Te'o.

Our ward's 8th Quoroum of Elders, under the leadership of President Defiu Iereneo, sponsored a dinner and dance May 31 and June 8. Members who attended enjoyed the food and music provided by the Te'o Brothers.

Bay Area To Receive Church Best Faculty

By Glenna M. Stephens

In a revelation to Joseph Smith at Kirtland, Ohio, on Dec. 27, 1832, the Lord told the Church in Section 88 of the Doctrine & Covenants to seek after learning to build a "house of Learning."

He also said:

"Teach ye diligently . . . Of things both in heaven and in the earth and under the earth; things which have been, things which are, things which must shortly come to pass; trings which are at home ,things which are abroad; the wars and the perplexities of the nations, and the judgements which are on the land and a knowledge also of countries and of kingdoms . . ."

'That ye may be prepared in all things when I shall send you again to magnify the calling whereunto I have called you, and the mission with which I have commssioned you."

The World Is Our Campus" has been chosen as the theme for all 1968 Education Week programs. The success of the program depends upon preregistration of individuals and families. A member of the First Presidency and an assistant to the Twelve will be our area. President Dyer will be here by speci fic request of President McKay to deliver a special message. Brother Hanks will thrill our people with messages on How to Enjoy the Book of Mormon and The Doctrine and Covenants.'

Dr. Harold Glen Clark, Dean of the Division of Continuing Education will be a member of the faculty. Following is a short history of B.Y.U. Education Week in the Bay Area, written by Dr. Clark:

THE FIRST EDUCATION WEEK IN NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

"We were thrilled in the Spring of 1959 when the stake presidents of the Bay Area under the direction of President Leslie Stone asked for an Education Week at the New Inter-stake Center and received permission from the Board of Trustees to hold it.

Brother Elmo Smith was appointed General Chairman and Harold Glen Clark met with him in his hotel room at the 1959 April Conference and organized the details of committee assignments.

The dates were set for August 31 through September 4 at the new Inter-Stake Center in Oakland. 19 BYU faculty and 27 local speakers lecturers made up the faculty to serve all of the Northern California stakes. The general superintendent of the YMMIA, Joseph T. Bentley, a member of the Presiding Bishopric, Harvey L. Taylor, the son of Henry J. Kaiser and others were present. Nearly 3,000 people were in attendance and every available large class room was in use.

Later Education Weeks organized in Sacramento and in Palo Alto and this reduced the number coming to the Inter-stake Center. But the beginning in Oakland was a most joyful and auspicious occasion It will be long remembered for its enthusiasm and the spirit of cooperation among the hundreds who served as ward and stake chairmen and as faculty members." — Harold Glen Clark

HAROLD GLEN CLARK . Dean, BYU Division of Continuing Education—his lectures on priesthood appeal to both men and women—author Art of Governing Zion — offers self-improvement lectures — How to Listen (45% of what one learns is through the ear.)—how to decide — How to Influence through the Priesthood—listed in Who's Who in America — wife, Mary Deane Peterson Clark, and three of eight children accompany him.

Entertainment With A Message

THE THREE D'S. Nationally known Mormon folk song and modern music performers, famous for good humor, dramatic style, sentimental appeal — voice, guitars, drums, piano, and other intruments—versatile, unusual, warm approach to soft ballmads and close harmony—young, old, enjoy musical arrangements—Holywood recording een accaim baritone Dick Davis arrangements and his guitar strumming skill as best in the business — "most complimented member," is high tenor, Denis Sorenson — is also smallest member but player of largest instruments, string bass, piano and conga drum — Duane Hiatt giant and spokesman of the group sets mood for trio — Hiatt, lead tenor, establishes real communication with audience — Dick, Denis, Duane are BYU graduates — with work experience and travel — all will conduct daily lectures — perform grand concert as finale to program — ticket to this concert alone is $2.00 — all urged to purchase 3 day, $6.00 ticket (ticket is $5.00 if purchased before the opening day) — this ticket admits the registrant to daily lectures of The Three D's, and the concert as well as any of the 42 other lectures of Education Week program. What an educational bargain!

This popular performing trio travels via camper to college campuses throughout the U.S., church groups, civic groups and last year flew out of Travis Air Force Base to Vietnam under the auspices of U. S. Armed Special Services. "Be prepared to adapt," read their instructions. This they do very well wherever they go. They give their testimonies and explain the principles of the Gospel at every opportunity.

Give Said The Little Stream," the Primary children's classic might well be the theme song of the Three D's Dick Davis, Duane Hiatt, and Desis Sorenson.

Their popular albums are: Mormon Folk Ballads" Century," "I Won't Be Worried Long," and "Dimensions in Folk Songs" Capitol. "The Three D's Sing to L.D.S. Children" and "Songs Of Our American Heritage," Continental Record Co. Inc.

The M.I.A. girls did a beautiful job with teir "Fashion Show" May 11. The decor, food and entertainment were excellent. It was a fund raising affair for Camp in Aug. The entertainment was furnished by Rhoda Napoleons Dance School and songs by Blossom Kaleikau. It was pronounced "success."

De to arrive home in June are Elder James and Sister Stam from a Mission in their native Holland, due to a stroge suffered by James.

Fast Day, May 5 was for the "Bassinet Bunch' (it seemed), The beaming parents were aglow with pride, The following babies were blessed by their fathers. Tamra Lyne Levingston, Dau. of Janet and Clarence. Brent Curtis Robison, son of Roberta and Lawerence. Peter Owen Tristian, son of Mary Beth and Owen. Kay Marie Davidson, daughter of Pat and Vici Lee Renolds was blessed the previous fast Sunday.

Venice Mortensen is recuperating from a broken foot and Leonard Warren after a bout in the Hospital with his Back. Katie Sifpson is in poor condition with new aliments being added to the many she has had for a long time.

Our sincere love and sympathy goes to Violet McClintock Pinckney whose mother, Margaret O'Brien Alameda Hospital from an injury M.Clintock, 92, passed away in the while she was enjoying an extended visit the same to Edna Dunford who lost her brother, she attended his funeral in Las Vegas and remained a week. Love and sympathy also goes to Owen Tristian whose Father passed away the same day their daughter wa born. He went to Canada to attend the funeral service.

,Sympathy notes were included last month fo rthe following (but got lost) so will try again. Isobel (Boots) Buck's brother passed away in Tooele, Utah, she flew and remained two weeks. Murray Eliason also lost a brother in Richfield, he too went to his brothers services.

Kendall and Sharon Clayson have purchased a hofe in Fremont, much to the disy of the ward members Kendall has been Sup't. of YMMIA and Sharon a Beehive teacher, both and Sharon a Beehive teacher, both raving done an excellent job. Lincoln De Witt is replacing Kendall, with Lloyd Hancock as 1st. Counselor and Harold Price as 2nd.

San Francisco

By Gloria Stracke

For a variety of reasons, San Francisco Ward will be losing a number of its members. Some will be leaving to set up practice — such as CRAIG LARSEN (College of Podiatry. LEE SMITH (Medicine,) MIKE FLYNN and BOB CROFT (Dental School). BILL BEEBE. his wife CAROL and son SHANE have mobed to Pacifica in San Mateo Stake. Bill was our ward clerk and Carol, the Sunday School secretary. BILL COOKE and MARY TAYLOR, just married in the akland Temple, have moved to Mission Ward. offsetting these losses are new ward members the DICK BUCHANAN family and the OSBORNES (iana Osborne has been added to the Primary staff — along with MARY COLDESINA and LEANN HART).

Recent ward activities include the MIA play "All in Favor" the Primary family hour, Temple, tour by the 11 year old Primary girls, creative arts festival where exhibits of every kind were displayed, the Aaronic Priesthood outing to Camp Royeneh. Many of our members turned out to enjoy the BYU production of "Holiday, USA," as well as the Relief Society stake party featuring a ham dinner and Polynesian entertainment and dancing.

KELVIN BROWN has been promoted to sergeant in the San Francisco poice force. HOLLY KAY BUDGE was recently baptized.

HELEN OLSEN and MARK SOLOMAN received four-year certificates at the Seminary graduation.

GENE and GLORIA STRACKE returned from a 6400-mile vacation tour of the midwest — as far east as Kirtland, Ohio, where they toured the Temple and early home of the Prophet there. Much valuable information and many pictures were collected permitting family lines to be traced back three centuries. More than 100 relatives were contacted. Many shared this wealth of genealogy. These were all relatives of Gene's whom he had never seen before.

Fremont Stake

One hundred visiting teachers from the six wards of Fremont Stake were honored by the stake board of Relief Society at a special program and luncheon May 10.

The program was held in the chapel and included an original dramatization "By This Shall All Men Know," written and directed by Inez Urie of Fremont 3d Ward, remarks by stake visiting teacher topic leader Naomi Bodily, a special vocal duet by Suzanne McCoy and Beth Dorny, and concluding remarks by Sterling Nicolayson of the stake presidency.

Following the program the sisters went to the cultural hall where they were served a lunch of turkey salad, hot rolls and strawberry dessert.

The hall of the Church, at Peralta and Temple Way in Fremont, was decorated like a garden with pink and white colors predominant.

Clayton Valley 2d

By Thelma Petersen

Our new chapel is progressing rapidly and we will probably be able to occupy it by the latter part of July. Guided tours were held May 7 and 8, by Clayton Valley and Clayton Valley 2d Wards to give members an opportunity to get acquainted with the fine facilities which will be provided for them. After the tour each ward held a meeting in the building. Many members of each ward are participating in the work and doing a great deal to speed up completion.

Sister Elinor Hughes has been appointed president of the Primary with Una Blatter and Nancy Hartelt as counselors and Emily Borgersen, secretary. On June 15 the Primary will hold its "Jolly Holiday" with a luncheon for the mothers and daughters. On June 17 the Liahoma Group is holding a cook-out. June 21 and 22 there will be a camp for the Guide Patrol at Brannan Island. Keith Coe graduated from Primary and is now a deacon and a second class Scout.

Some interesting work meetings are being held by the Relief Society each month under direction of Sister Darlene Thompson, work counselor, and Carol Walker, new work director. The Relief Society Singing Mothers are developing into an accomplished singing group under direction of Barbara Evans, with Mary Johnson at the organ.

The Westover boys are active and energetic in their Church activities and have earned individual Priesthood awards as follows: Paul, two years; Gale, four years; Kim, five years, and Kirk, six years.

Kim Westover and Gale Westover have also received their Duty to God Awards.

Alan Gene Hatley recently was baptized and confirmed a member of the Church.

A number of our young men and women will graduate from high school in June: Kathleen Hawkes, Kathryn Cusack, Karen Lockyer, Catheryne Nunes, Janeen Robbins, Kirk Westover, Wayne Borgersen, Larry Fackrell, Tom Pollock, Kevin Wikle, Charles Powell, Gene Hatley and Rick Manwill.

Pittsburg Ward

By
Boots Barrus and Thora Astle

Honors were awarded recently to Bill Campbell, son of Brother and Sister James Campbell, senior at Pacifica High School and member of Pittsburg Ward. Named the 2d most Outstanding Teenager in America, Bill won a trophy award at the 1968 White House Conference of Children and Youth held recently at the University of Hawaii.

The conference was co-sponsored by the Teenage Assembly of America and the Family Court of the State of Hawaii. More than 700 teenagers from 35 states attended. As president pro-tempore of the teenage assembly, Bill was responsible for organizing the delegation from California.

Among other recent honors was the award of $150 bank achievement award in the final round of the bank's 1968 competitions. He was also runner-up in the fine arts division. An Eagle Scout and holder of the Duty to God award. Bill is also active in Church functions and holds certificates for all required Priesthood awards.

A pre-nuptial shower was a May highlight for Karol Krey, fiancee of Michaell Sinnott of San Jose. Hostesses for the evening's event at the home of Ralph and Delano Krey, were Maxine Buccellato, Boots Barrus, Thora Astle, Gloria Magleby and Elva Johnson. Margaret Scott was awarded a special

LIKE TO MEET MORE SINGLE MORMONS?
YOU CAN DO IT THE NEW COMPUTERIZED
WAY WITH ELECTRONIC DATING

Electronic Dating is the new service designed exclusively for members of the LDS Church. The questionnaire deals with subjects of particular interest such as church activity, temple attitudes etc. and has been thoroughly evaluated by groups o fsingle Mormons right in this area.

HERE'S HOW ELECTRONIC DATING TAKES THE "BLIND" OUT OF "DATING."

You send us your application for membership and we send you our comprehensive questionnaire. You fill it out, send it back to us and then we transfer your information onto the tape which we run through the new IBM 360 high speed computor. The computor then knows what you're like and what sort of person you'd like to meet. It sorts all the members out and selects the ones whose company you're most lekely to enjoy. You're informed by us who your matches are and the rest is up to you.

Since you're doing the selecting, your date should be great. Why wait.

Ygnacio Ynfo

By Marge Cline

Winner of the regional volleyball championship were these girls of Ygnacio Valley Ward, ELAINE BENCH, ANNETTE and COLLEEN CHALLIS, DEELAYNE CLINE, MARTIE and AMY FELLOWS, NORMA HOYES, MARSHA JONES and CAROLANNE PIERCE. They were undefeated in winning the Concord Stake championship and in playing Oakland-Berkeley, Walnut Creek, Santa Rosa, Hayward, Fremont, Napa and San Leandro stakes. Sports directors MARGARET KAISER and CORINNE TVETER were credited with the girls' success and sportsmanship.

Ygnacio Valley Ward has started to grow. There's Jim and Ruth Challis Annette, Colleen, Daniel David and Tommy, from Salt Lake City, There's Earl and Mishie Leavitt, John and Daniel, from Las Vegas (John has just returned from Viet Nam. There's Jean and Jerry Elliott, Lynn and Kathy, from Oakgrove Ward and before that Los Angeles. There's Evelyn and Dean Toone, Becky and David, from San Mateo 1st Ward. There's Nyla and Ken Ford, Lori, Cathy, Shelly and Jamie, from Seattle. There's Vince and Gail Wood Kent, Keith, Michaele, Tamara, Shauna and Noel from Concord 2d Ward.

Our rummage sale was successful. It put us almost $500.00 closer to our dishwasher for our new chapel — which is progressing nicely, We're hoping to be meeting there soon.

We're grateful to our Relief Society magazine representative, Ruby Willert. Through her diligent efforts our ward made 207 percent, Lois Leavitt worked so hard on the Era Drive that we filled our quota and went over by six. Sonja Woodard, our Children's Friend representative, reports with two weeks to go until the end of the drive) we only need three more subscriptions for 100 percent.

We had a ward carnival May 25

Teri Peterson became the bride of Frank Acebo May 11. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Gautier in the Pleasant Hill Chapel. A delightful reception followed. They honeymooned at Lake Tahoe, and then returned to Walnut Creek so they could leave for Cocoa Beach, they could leave for Cocoa Beach, Florida, near Patrick Air Force Base, where Frank is stationed with the U.S. Air Force. Stan and Louise Mann came here for the wedding. They are moving to Chicago in October.

Wins Scholarship

Michael Wayne Barney, a junior journalism student at Brigham Young University, was named winner of the 1968-69 scholarship of the Utah Headliners Chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional newsmens' fraternity.

Mr. Barney, whose home is San Francisco, will receive $135 from the professional chapter and $20 from the student chapter for a total of $155. A scholarship also is awarded annually to an outstanding student at University of Utah.

A transfer student to BYU from San Diego State and San Francisco State Colleges, Mr. Barney served on a mission for the LDS Church to West Germany and has a grade-point average of 3.26 (A is 4.0). He is a member of the student chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, and Kappa Tau Alpha (honorary scholastic society) and is a staff writer for the Universe, student daily newspaper.

GEORGE, THE STUFFING IS COMING THROUGH THE RIPS!
OLD ONE'S GOOD ENOUGH.
GEORGE! THIS MATTRESS IS AS OLD AS OUR MARRIAGE!
OLD ONE'S GOOD ENOUGH.
GEORGE! I BOUGHT A NEW SEALY THIS MORNING ON SALE! AT LAUPER'S
OLD ONE'S GOOD... HOW MUCH?
$34.00 WITH INNER FEATURES THAT ARE $59.95 QUALITY.
SHOULD HAVE DONE IT YEARS AGO, LaVON

By George, it's the first chance she's had to get $59.95 value for $34.

Sealy.

LAUPER'S is not a seven billion dollar Sear's store chain, nor are we like the one half billion dollar Macy's stores. We can't offer you all the services that you have come to expect from Breuner's, Emporium-Capwell's, Sloanes, Wards, Sears, or Macy's. . . and a number of other well heeled institutions. However there are some important things that we can do better for you—such as to save you money! The sale noted on this page is a prime example of saving money on good, name known beds. Compare it with any equal sleep set sale that you have seen during the last several years. Convinced? Now, give us a phone call and order a new, comfortable matress and box spring at this incomparable low price.

In the May issue of Sunset Magazine you may have seen that Simmons company listed "Lauper's" as THE San Leandro dealer for sofa Hide-a-Beds, Beautyrests etc. At the same time, the Sealy Co. gave us spot commercials on the radio. This is all due to the fact that so many of our friends and fellow church members are taking advantage of the good buys at LAUPER'S and making us a big volume dealer. We appreciate it and thank you. Marcel, Dennis, and Ralph LAUPER.

REMEMBER: "You may sleep as LONG as you like on a Lauper's KING SET!"
